Option 1 - The best way is via Zelle at your bank or on their website. <https://www.zellepay.com/>. If you haven't used it before, call your bank or set it up online. It's free and safer than other ways. When registering for Zelle with your bank, you'll be asked to register your phone number or email. Our Zelle money transfer is linked to my email: mayra@cpstravels.com.

Option 2 - You can also send us a check. Please don't drop it in the mail, use Fedex or UPS so we can track it.

The address is:

Option 3 - You can use a credit card but it will cost you an additional 4%. Call us so we can take the number over the phone if you choose this option.

Cuban Visa

You will need to get a visa to enter Cuba. Some of the airlines sell them (check with them) or you can order them online from Cuba Visa Services (my recommendation). They are around $100 and you fill it out yourself. Be careful with the date format, you mess it up, you buy a new one..

Here is a link where you can order your visa. <https://cubavisaservices.com>
